

McMILLAN.

Special Correspondence.

McMillan, I. T., May 8.—We have quite a flourishing school now. We have decided to have a Children's Day some time this month, probably May 31. Our school has had a very successful term under Prof. M. D. Deck.

Rev. Grimes of Lebanon preached a most interesting sermon here Sunday morning and evening to large and appreciative audiences.

Mrs. W. A. Lowery of Mannsville is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Jim McGay.

Misses Jessie and Stella and Master Ed. Wilson, who have been visiting their grandparents Dr. and Mrs. Weston in Ardmore, returned home last week and are attending school.

Miss Maggie Lowery, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. McGay, returned to her home at Mannsville Saturday.

Mr. Kahn of Madill moved his family to McMinn last week and will make this his future home.

We had a very interesting old fashioned spelling bee at the school house Friday evening, which was participated in and enjoyed by all old and young.

A Revelation.
Billions Bill was getting floated, And his tongue was muchly coaxed, Companies would not insure him, And he stinks were badly frightened.

But their spirits soon were lightened, For Bill said—and they believed him— Early Riser Pills relieved him. The famous little pills, "Early Risers," cure constipation, sick headache, biliousness, etc., by their tonic effect on the liver. They never gripe or ailen, but impart early rising energy. Good for children or adults. Sold by all druggists.

Don't undertake to "bluff" unless you know your opponent as thoroughly.

A Positive Necessity.

Having to lay upon my bed for 14 days from a severely bruised leg, I only found relief when I used a bottle of Ballard's Snow Liniment. I can cheerfully recommend it as the best medicine for bruises ever sent to the afflicted. It has now become a positive necessity upon myself.

J. R. Byrnes, merchant, Deversville, Texas, 25¢, 50¢ and $1.00. For sale by W. B. Frame.

The tone of the voice carries deceit quite as much as does the utterance.

Herbine.

Will overcome indigestion and dyspepsia; regulates the bowels and cures liver and kidney complaints.

It is the best blood enlivener and invigorator in the world. It is purely vegetable, perfectly harmless and should you be a sufferer from disease, you will use it if you are wise.

R. N. Andrews, editor and manager Cocoa and Rockledge News, Cocoa, Fla., writes: I have used your Herbine in my family and I find it a most excellent medicine. Its effect upon my self have been a marked benefit. Sold by W. B. Frame.

It's queer what a hard time a girl with open-work stockings has trying to climb a fence.

The man in the moon isn't mad at Old Sol for making light of him.

AN ODD EPISTAPH.

George Hitler taken himself to a Watchman Watch.

"Franklin's example, where he compared himself to a small book is known to all of us," said an antiquary. "Here is a copy of a less famous epitaph, the epitaph of a watchmaker, George Hitler, who compared himself to a watch that had run down."

The man took off his pocketbook.

"George Hitler," he said, "lived in New Hampshire in the town of Newport. He died in 1827."

Then he read:

"Here lies in horizontal position the ancient case of George Hitler, whose dwelling place in that time was an honor to his profession. Integrity was his main spring and dependence the regeneration of all the accounts of his life. Human kindness and liberal, his hand never stopped till he had relieved distress. He never courted wrong except when set against people who did not know his key. Even then he was easily set right again. He had the art of dispensing of his time so well that for hours gilded by his continual round of pleasure and delight till an unlucky moment came to end of his existence. He departed this life Sept. 31, 1822. His care rests and mothers and drowses beneath the sod, but his good works will never die."—Philadelphia Bulletin.
